The T.B. Scott Free Library is every person's gateway to an expanding world of information. The library is committed to providing the best in service to the community. To achieve this goal, the library offers wireless Internet access (WiFi) to its patrons.

T.B. Scott Free Library provides unfiltered WiFi to library patrons. Any patron who complies with the Library's Internet Use Policy may use the wireless access service.

When using the WiFi, patrons must respect the following policy, rules, and regulations:
- The Library does not require patrons to register or use a password to access the WiFi. Patrons desiring to utilize the Library's WiFi must have a portable computing device.
- There is no guarantee that a wireless connection can be made or maintained.
- The Library's WiFi does not provide a secure connection. Patrons use the Library's wireless Internet access at their own risk. The Library encourages patrons to use virus protection, a personal firewall, and other measures to protect personal information from disclosure. Patrons using their portable computing devices are solely responsible for protecting their personal information and assume all risks of an invasion of privacy or disclosure of personal information that may occur when using the Library's WiFi.
- The Library's WiFi does not include the ability to print documents on library printers. However, there are options available. Patrons desiring to print documents from a personal device should ask for assistance.
- The T.B. Scott Free Library is not responsible for any loss of information or damage that may occur, either directly or indirectly, to any personal equipment or data.
- Patrons utilizing the Library's WiFi must comply with all other policies of the T.B. Scott Free Library, including but not limited to the Internet Use Policy. The Library reserves the right to terminate any wireless network connection in accordance with federal, state, and local laws, regulations and policies. A violation of this Policy constitutes a violation of the Library's Internet Use Policy.
